The example at left illustrates on-site living accommodations for approximately 80 employees, complete with laundry units, recreation and entertainment facilities, staff office, vending area, and housekeeping and maintenance. An almost self-contained environment providing all the comforts of home – away from home, to give your employees what they need on-location to be a motivated and contributing asset to your business.

The combination of available facilities are virtually endless, from the type of accommodations offered, to completely custom design and finish out, to the various facade and foundation options we offer. Ellis Modular will work with you and your team to come up with a modular solution that will save you time and money on your facilities needs, and meet the requirements of your project and your employees.
